

Church Community Still Available Even at a Distance

As we prepare for yet another month in the midst of the pandemic, we lift our prayers for all those starting school and work again. We at the Congregational Church of Easton have been meeting in person for worship but still offering worship online. We have been using technology to keep the faith community together in this unprecedented time.

We openly invite anyone in need of community, prayer, and spiritual care to join us on Sunday morning for worship online. The Zoom link can be found on our website at EastonChurch.org or you may join us for in-person worship at 10 a.m. on Sunday mornings.

However, in-person worship does require calling the church office at 203-261-2527 for reservations as our allowed seating is limited. There are also safety precautions that are necessary for joining us. The church office can inform anyone interested in attending when reservations are made.

We will also be beginning an online Bible Study to start on Sept. 17 at 7 p.m. The Zoom links will be posted weekly on the church website. It is open to all who want to attend. We will be studying 2 Corinthians.

We are also keeping ourselves busy with a church family and friends cookbook. And we would like to share some of the fun recipes that will appear in this book each week. This week's recipe is:
