About the Ashlar-Aspetuck Masonic Lodge

With more than 60 years of Masonic tradition in Easton, the Ashlar-Aspetuck Lodge is a recognized lodge of the Grand Lodge of the State of Connecticut. The fraternity meets on the second Wednesday of every month except in July and August.

Freemasonry evolved from the guilds of stonemasons and cathedral builders of the Middle Ages. According to the website, "Many of our nation's early patriots were Freemasons, as well as thirteen signers of the Constitution and fourteen Presidents of the United States beginning with George Washington. Today, the more than four million Freemasons around the world come from virtually every occupation and profession."
