

Letter: Anne Hughes Endorsement

To the Editor:

Tenacity. That's the word to describe our fearless state representative, Anne Hughes. She is that most unusual elected official who always fights for what she believes in; who is always working hard for her constituents.

That's true whether it's high-profile action to hold our utility companies accountable when the power goes out or behind the scenes action organizing the funding and distribution of personal protective equipment for front line workers and those most vulnerable to COVID 19.

Anne Hughes is the hard-charging advocate we need in the 135th district. Let's send Anne Hughes back to Hartford!
