

The Library's Art Show Fundraiser Begins Jan. 25

The Easton Public Library will host an Art Show Fundraiser, beginning on Jan. 25 in the library community room. The exhibit will feature the works of Keri English-Giddes and her students.

English-Giddes is the founder/director of the Easton Arts Center and Owner of LaLaPicasso, LLC. She will be exhibiting pieces from her “Housepaint” series, as well as demos from her remote lessons.

“I am so grateful to Keri for her generosity, and I am very excited to see the pieces she chooses for the exhibit,” said Lynn Zaffino, library director.

Patrons may view the exhibit during regular Library hours — Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday from 10-5, Thursday from 10-7, and Saturday from 10-3. Fifty percent of the proceeds will benefit the Easton Public Library Children’s Expansion Project.
