

Highlights from the Courier 6/29/20 – 7/5/20

In case you missed it, check out some of the articles below posted in the Easton Courier in the past week, from Monday, June 29 to Sunday, July 5.

Don't forget to subscribe to email notifications. It's free, and you control the frequency. You can enter your email address here: <https://eastoncourier.news/subscribe/>. You control your notification preferences.

HIGHLIGHTS FROM EASTON COURIER ARTICLES, JUNE 29 TO JULY 5

Bringing Clean Drinking Water to a Thirsty World

The Historical Society of Easton Presents Then & Now

Barlow Students Win Achievement Writing Awards

Love In Action

Easton Police Log June 22, 2020 – June 28, 2020

Easton Observes Independence Day

The Easton Courier at Four Months: A Model for Innovative Community Journalism

Library Reopening July 6

The Absentee Ballot Law Should be Changed for the November Election

Message from First Selectman Bindelglass ... Update for Independence Day Weekend

The Politics of Masking

Morehouse Fields

Easton Cookbook Heating Up

Letter to the Easton Board of Selectmen: Open Town Hall

Silver Linings